The final number of guests and full payment are due 5 BUSINESS DAYS prior to your event. An earlier guarantee due date will be required for groups over 100 people or specialty menus and items. If no guarantee is given, we will prepare and apply charges based on the estimated number of guests. We bill for the actual attendance or the final guarantee, whichever is greater. Payment can be made with checks, credit cards or University food approved budgets. Additional charges may be billed following the event and are due within 30 days of invoicing. 100% of the service fee will be retained by Bay Laurel Catering to further enhance your event.

Items are prepared in facilities that handle many common allergens including dairy, eggs, fish, nuts, shellfish, soy, and wheat. When a special request is made, we work carefully to omit specific allergens from a meal to the extent it is possible within our operation.

Since the products we use come from a variety of external vendors and sources, we are unable to guarantee they will be 100% allergen-free.
